COUNTY ROADS CAUSE CAUSE "GRIEF" FOR COMMISSIONERS

Present and past county commissioners agree that county roads are the cause of more "grief" for the commissioners than any other phase of their work. This is due to the fact that as a rule there are contending factions when a road is petitioned for and a fight follows. Then again the question of damages creates more or less contention, the land owners or lessors demanding much more for the land required for the road than it is worth and greater than the damage he suffers. Another drawback is that the road levy, up to the limit, creates less money than is needed, and action on petitions is delayed by reason of lack of funds.

At the present time there are on file with the commissioners twenty petitions for new roads or extensions to existing roads, and to open them and pay the damages which the land owners ask means a big expenditure of money. In addition to those petitions, about an equal number of roads have been granted, but upon which the damages have not been paid. These damages amounting to $6,000 or $7,000, have not been paid by reason of lack of funds. Only part of these roads have been opened for travel.

The road levy creates about $20,000 a year, which is just about half the sum that is needed to open the new roads demanded and keep in good repair those already in use. To expend $20,000 where $40,000 is needed and at the same time to keep the road users in good humor requires tact, diplomacy and good financing on the part of the commissioners.

Many Attend Reception.

About two hundred people attended the farewell reception tendered Archdeacon J. J. Bowker and Mrs. Bowker at the Odd Fellows' hall Tuesday evening. In the receiving line with Mr. and Mrs. Bowker were several ladies of the parish, and while the reception was in progress selections were rendered by the Stamp orchestra. During the evening punch and wafers were served by a bevy of young ladies in the dining hall. Cut flowers were used for decorative purposes. Harry Dixon in behalf of the parish, in a well worded speech presented the Archdeacon with a purse, and Judge Hoagland spoke at some length on the good work of Mr. Bowker as a pastor of the parish, the kindly feeling entertained for him and for Mrs. Bowker and the general regret felt at their leaving.

Thoughts for the Month.

The fellowship of the W. C. T. U. has been sweet and blessed to all our hearts. We are all broader minded and kinder natured because of our association together in this blessed work for humanity. The W. C. T. U. met on February 6th at the home of Mrs. J. T. Murphy, 403 South Willow, there were thirty present, ten visitors. The excellent and successful work of the North Platte union during the past year can be attributed to the aggressive and efficient leadership of our energetic president, Mrs. Belle Morris.

Our programs throughout the year have been helpful, with a good attendance at all meetings. Much interest was shown in the recent campaign work which made Nebraska Dry. We make a special effort to have our Franchise, Flower Mission, Francis Willard and Mothers' meetings a social and attractive one each year. The program for the Francis E. Willard meeting held Tuesday was led by Mrs. T. T. Overman. Duet by Miss Ida Murphy and Mrs. Dorothy Murphy Chaloupka, reading entitled "The Life of Francis E. Willard" by Mrs. Emma Shindler, reading entitled "The Mother's Retrospect of '76'" by Mrs. VanCleave, solo by Mrs. B. A. Cram, reading Mrs. C. S. Sawyer, short sketches of Francis E. Willard by Mesdames Mills, Perkins, Smith, Hartman, Kelly, and Murdoch. Mrs. Morris gave a reading entitled "Kausas and the Cigarette." Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. N. E. Louden. We pray that our union may have a prosperous year ahead in 1917.

Pres., Supt.

Roosevelt is Ready to Fight.

Oyster Bay—Theodore Roosevelt has pledged his support to President Wilson in upholding the honor of the United States. He offered to the country his own services and those of his four sons in the event of hostilities. Plans for a volunteer army division to be commanded by the colonel, which his friends have worked on since the sinking of the Lusitania, again have come to the front and he admitted he had asked the war department for permission to raise such a body of troops.

HOG SHIPMENTS HEAVY; AND PRICES ARE HIGH

C. H. Walter, the local hog buyer, has shipped out about eight hundred head of hogs this week, 550 head of which were shipped Tuesday. Those shipped Tuesday were bought at an average price of $11.25 per hundred pounds; and for a car bought Wednesday of George Shoup, of Sutherland, Mr. Walter paid $11.40. He also purchased of different parties about 100 head of stock hogs for which he paid twelve cents a pound. These latter were shipped to a feeder at Cozad.

During the week Mr. Walter has paid out about twenty thousand dollars for hogs, and to this must be added a large sum for cattle which he purchased and shipped or sold to local parties.

Mr. Walter's business for the week is an index of the immensity of the live stock interests of Lincoln county, for there must be taken into consideration shipments from towns in the south part of the county, from Maxwell and Brady and from other shipping points.

PEOPLE AND EVENTS

Every time Osterism shows its head the hammer gets into action. Isaac Isaman, 92, of Spark Hill, N. Y., excels in hammer welding and his aim is good. Just to show'em, the other day Isaman chopped a cord of wood and then went fishing through the Hudson ice for pickerel.

The silent sentinels of the White House still wave their banners and plod their weary rounds, and the suffrage cause remains where it was. Things will take on a more aggressive hue on inauguration day, when a conglomeration of charmingly fierce snuff will surround the White House and scowl becomingly. The movies are also on guard and reel off hot snuff.

Juvenile Judge Arnold, of Chicago, the other day told a batch of policemen to pick out the worst boy in each neighborhood and hold him responsible for the conduct of the rest of the "kids." Explaining why, the judge said: "The worst boy is usually the leader. The other boys admire his courage and will follow him, so we must get him to turn his energies to upholding the law."

THE HEN THAT LAYS

is the hen that pays. If she does not lay, kill her, but before you kill her give her B. A. Thomas' Poultry Remedy twice a day for a week, and then you will not kill her for she will be paying you a profit. It not only makes hens lay but it is a remedy for Cholera, Roup, and Gapes. We guarantee it to cure or we refund your money. Sold by Derryberry & Forbes.

Arthur Bullard, of Company E, who was visiting the home folks while on his furlough, was called to Fort Crook Tuesday afternoon.

Dr. Brock, Dentist, over Stone Drug store.
Mrs. James Shaffer has accepted a position in the Duke wall paper store, succeeding Mrs. Thomas Fagg, who has gone to Arlington residence.
